Sale of City Property.

4 Auctioneer M. F. Kenney sold yesterday at the court house door for Master Commissioner C. A. McMillan, the Burnett property, located in the Old Fair Grounds Addition at corner of Nineteenth and Brent streets, to the Deposit Bank of Paris for $800.

Two Hunters Arrested.

The first arrests for violations of the new game laws to occur in Bourbon county were made by Game Warden James Gibson yesterday when warrants were issued for Clay Laughlin and Ed Igo, two white men of North Middletown precinct. The warrants were the result of alleged violations of the game laws and three charges were preferred. It is alleged the men were hunting on the farm of Mr. Henry S. Caywood near North Middletown and are charged with hunting without a license and out of season and unlawfully having in their possession a rabbit killed with a gun.

Warden Gibson, who was recently appointed by State Agent of the Fish and Game Commission, J. Quincy Ward, is determined to enforce the law to the letter and is making a good start in that direction. The trial of Laughlin and Igo will take place in North Middletown Wednesday.

Street Surface Roughened.

The surface of Main street from the county jail to the Agricultural Bank, on Broadway, was on Friday roughened through the use of the heavy steam roller, which was equipped with heavy steel spikes. The condition of the street was such as to be unsafe for horses and this means was employed to help horses and mules driven through the street.

The matter was attended to by the city authorities immediately upon the expiration of the guarantee of the National Bitumen Co., of Indianapolis, Ind., which company constructed the street. The street has in no sense proven satisfactory to the city and Mayor Hinton notified the bonding company of Indianapolis, which was financially back of the National Bitumen Co., that the city would not accept the street.

Since the street was repaired last spring there have been a number of accidents, but only in a few cases has anything of a serious nature resulted. The contract held with the construction company expired Thursday at midnight.

In order to safeguard the city's interest Mr. Hinton refrained from interfering with the street until the National Bitumen Co.'s guarantee had expired. It will now devolve upon the bonding company to make a satisfactory settlement with the city and the question will be taken up at once.

Best Vote offer of the contest closes at 9 o'clock tonight.

THEATRICAL.

HYATT & LENORE BLACK AND WHITE MINSTRELS.

The Hyatt & Lenore Black and White Minstrels opened a week's engagement at the Grand last night to a large audience. This company consists of seven people, three ladies and four gentlemen. The new songs and dancing specialties were the best seen at the Grand for some time. The velvet setting used by the company is very handsome and would fit in well with a much larger minstrel. The two reels of pictures were entertaining and the show taken as a whole will no doubt attract each night as large an audience during the remainder of the week as they did last night.

As an added feature election returns will be announced from the stage tonight. The house will be left open after the show until it is determined who is elected. Two shows will be given tonight so there will be no dull waits between returns. The first show starts at 7:30.

"The Home of Good Things to Eat"

When you go home
have a nice home
to go to

Dear Amy:-

I don't wonder that Jennie's husband stays down town nights so much. She doesn't seem to care a thing about fixing up her home.

We wouldn't mind giving her the money to buy furniture with, either, if she'll only go buy it and keep it looking right when she gets it. All she thinks about is how she looks when she is out—not what her home looks like.

Always your friend,

Lou.

P. S.—Jennie could furnish her home so nicely with first-class furniture and for so little money, too, if she would only visit

J. T. HINTON.
